The Resurrection of Daffodils by William Wordsworth (1770-1850)

*I wandered lonely as a cloud / that floats on high o'er vales and hills, / when all at once I saw a crowd, / a host, of golden daffodils; / Beside the lake, beneath the trees, / fluttering and dancing in the breeze... / Ten thousand saw I at a glance, / tossing their heads in sprightly dance. / The waves beside them danced, but they / out-did the sparkling waves in glee...
/ And then my heart with pleasure fills, / and dances with the daffodils.*

William Wordsworth (1770–1850), the greatest of Romantic poets, chanted upon the inspiration of 'The Daffodils'. Once working in Cambridge, I was fortunate to visit many historic sites including St. John's College where Wordsworth studied, and a place called 'The Backs' on the backyard of King's College where I used to go to ponder upon the glory of snowdrops and daffodils in spring. Wordsworth lost both his parents when he was thirteen (I lost my mother at thirteen), however, he found a path of resurrection in his life. I call this path a 'spirit of resurrection'. I suppose William imagined his mothers' resurrection in nature.

My first article in the Link magazine, as a 'supply minister' (?) for the life of Hockley and Hawkwell Church, I am humbly putting my foot into the circle of the Church for being part of the shared journey without a prior expectation! Sadly to say without a doubt, I hardly find any right words to describe the sudden departure of our brother, Rev. Stephen Watts. One of the beautiful memories of Stephen I cherish in my heart at this time is that our staff meeting normally took place at his home.

Val always prepared a beautiful lunch for us. And their dog, Willow, (I call him Willow Tree) of course, always welcomed us in style at the door. (He likes me as I gave him some crumbs) My hope for Val, and her children Lesley, Michael and Chris, is to find a new path of God's mercy on their journey. Yes, William found a new path of resurrection pondering upon the glory of daffodils in spring after his mother had gone. And I also pray that our church, Val and Val's children would find the same spirit of resurrection at this time. Nature itself is God's assistant minister or angel for the world to ponder about his consistent love and mercy. The Creator ordained for us to ponder upon the silent message of resurrection in nature too—"Consider the lilies, how they grow..." (Luke 12:27).

Now, daffodils, crocuses, forsythia are dancing; soon tulips and other spring flowers will be preaching as God's preachers! Enjoy the sermons of spring!

Church Family

Our thoughts and prayers are with all who are unwell, undergoing hospital tests and treatment or facing difficult times. Especially we think of Valerie Watts and her family following the sudden passing of Revd. Steve. We think too of Ray Williams, Caroline and David as they mourn the loss of Linda.

Our prayers are also asked for Colin Sains, Arthur Waterfield, Ron Hollioway, Eunice Burge, Sheila Hayman and their families.

CHURCH COUNCIL MEETING

At its February meeting Council members:

* discussed the worship team's timetable for the rest of 2019, noting that it included six dates for All-age Worship. On the fifth Sundays of June and September it was planned to have a communion service at 9.30am and a Songs of Praise service at 4pm. It was also hoped to participate in a joint service at Emmanuel church on Good Friday.

* heard an appeal for more church stewards to come forward;

* agreed to accept the quotation from CDS for restoration work on the car park and to invite the same company to resurface the drive;

* considered three tenders for kitchen refurbishment, agreed that the quotation from Taylor and Nicholls came closest to meeting our needs and instructed the relevant working party to conclude negotiations accordingly with a view to having the work carried out in summer 2019;

* were pleased to hear that the undertaking to donate £500 annually to 'All We Can' had virtually been achieved;

* were advised that action to meet the requirements of the new rules on Data Protection was now largely in hand.

FAIRTRADE TAKING THE GRIND OUT OF COFFEE GROWERS' LIVES

Thank you for your support of Fairtrade during Fairtrade fortnight. I'm glad you enjoyed the Fairtrade tea, coffee, biscuits and chocolate. Your donations allowed us to send £30 to the Fairtrade Foundation. Fairtrade just means the producers earn a fair price for their products. Firms such as Co-op and Waitrose build lasting relationships with farmers and have seen the positive impact Fairtrade can have on individuals and communities through the provision of new schools, water pipelines and better access to medical care. Keep looking out for the Fairtrade logo.

News from Norman & Valerie Taylor who moved to Northern Ireland and now live in Carrickfergus County Antrim

Be Joyful God is at work in the world and certainly in our lives. He holds us together and meets all our needs. There is not a lot to laugh about today so hope you will while reading this epistle.

We are both reasonably well for our ages 79 & 83. Still able to walk a fair distance unaided although not sure we could go on any of Mike & Muriel's rambles. Getting thin on top, wear glasses for reading and driving, should have hearing aids but who wants to hear some of the rubbish given out today.

There are two services at church, both led by the minister David. He is a great Teacher, doesn't do sermons, going through the prophets at the moment which are quite repetitive and we are expected to read the given portion before each Sunday. Once a month there is a Family service with tea and buns after – good time to get to know some of the 200 or so families. Lots going on; G.B., B.B., Mums and Toddlers, indoor bowling and football, lunch club, friendship club, M.W.I. etc. We only go Wednesday evening for Bible Study and one Saturday to clean the church – 4 floors and lots of rooms and toilets.

There are 20 houses and apartments in our little bit of Carrick and we have got to know the neighbours – mostly about our age and quite a few are churchgoers. Jackie and Herbie who go to the local Nazarene church (there are 33 interdenominational in and around Carrick) invite us once a month Saturday evening to supper at their house and we put the world in God's hand. They have worked at a retreat centre in Scotland so we have something in common as well as our Christian beliefs. Mary from our church also lives here.

Right. now for some family news. Carolyn and Stephen, also Charlotte and James. are still in Basildon, Charlotte works in the round the corner Martins newsagents and James in the Basildon Mall McDonalds, 32 and 29, no partners etc. and quite happy to live at home. Wendy and Richard divorced; both have remarried and have step-children. The children, Laura, works in London in 'IT' and has her flat in Southend. There is no one special but she has lots of friends and she visits us at least once a year. Matthew lives in Huddersfield, has a house and works in Insurance during the week and coaches American football at weekends which he got interested in while at University. No partners but plenty of friends from 'Uni.' days. Rebecca is living with a friend from schooldays after spending 9 years with Christopher who does not want to get married so she moved out. She worked in a children's nursery as assistant, then at a local leisure centre in a variety of jobs, life guard, reception and then in canteen where she decided to do a degree in Environmental Health. She is in London 2 or 3 times a week and also does voluntary work at Castle Point. So, no marriages, no great grandchildren.

Do hope you all enjoy reading our news and next time we are over will try and visit.

Wendy is still nursing at Southend General, if you have breathing problems you may come across her.

Lisa is a radiologist at Abergavenny Hospital, after retraining from a Chartered Surveyor; she and Eric have no children but live very busy social lives.

Well after re-reading this scribble – had to get it all down while the brain was still working – hope you found something to laugh about.

Blessings and love in Him who loves us so much.

Valerie and Norman

The Church Calendar & Heating

Colin Allison is now operating the heating system and will be relying on the Church Calendar on the website to set the heating programme. If the Calendar isn't kept up-to-date and accurate you could find yourselves sitting in the cold!

Please inform Carolyn on hmethsbookings@gmail.com or 203964 of any Team or other meetings that you currently have planned and of all future meetings. Carolyn passes details of all meetings, bookings, etc to Mike and he puts them on the Calendar on the Church Website.

Although Colin is now operating the system there is still a need for cover during holidays, etc. Any more volunteers out there? Please contact Anne on 07739184627

All you want to probably quite

know about addresses – and a lot you don't

Under the recent General Data Protection Regulations, it isn't considered acceptable to use private e-mail addresses for Church matters, so we've had to set up new e-mail addresses for various Church groups and jobs.

If you need to contact any of these people please don't use their personal e-mail addresses, use these Church addresses

Messy Church (Anne Sains) hmethsmessy@gmail.com
Money Matters (Stan Rae) hmethstreasurer@gmail.com

Fundraising/Social Team (Gill Cross & June Parkhurst) hmethsocial@gmail.com

You should no longer receive e-mails from private or individuals' e-mail addresses – please let me know if you do! These Church e-mail addresses also have the advantage that when the holder of a post changes, the address doesn't.

There are a few other Church e-mail addresses that pre-date the GDPR – they'll continue in use as follows:

THURSDAY SOCIAL CLUB

We were greatly distressed by unexpected news of the death of Linda Williams. She had been a loyal member of Thursday Club for many years, frequently as a Committee member. Her advice, her unflappable calm and willingness to take on many tasks will be greatly missed. Our sympathies lie with Ray, the Club's current chairman, and her two children, Caroline and David. They are very much in our thoughts.

As regards recent activities, we listened to a most interesting talk by Susan Mathews on her recent trip to China, 'Up the Yangtze'. Particularly appealing was her excursion to a Panda conservation centre where so many of this endangered species are bred and cared for. This requires a great deal of skill by the dedicated staff as pandas make indifferent mothers and their offspring when born are only a few inches long.

Our annual lunch was held at the local 'Rose Garden' restaurant. At the subsequent meeting David Clarke gave a lively talk about his memories of Sunday School in west London and the summer outing to Ruislip Lido. David's father was a Sunday School superintendent so he could appreciate the efforts which went into providing quality time for the many children passing through the church doors.

Our latest outing took us to the Meadowcroft Garden Centre. We all admired the wonderful display of primulas, pansies and violas - but it was a typical spring day with grey skies and a biting wind so we were glad to spend most time in the restaurant with tea and cake.

JOINT GOOD FRIDAY SERVICE WITH EMMANUEL CHURCH

No Good Friday service is planned at our church but instead we have arranged to take part in the service at Emmanuel Church on Friday 19 April at 11am. This is the first time our two churches have got together to hold a joint service so we do hope it will be supported by a good number from our congregation. I am happy to arrange transport if that is likely to be a problem.

Kay

Further information received as follows:

The service will involve hymns, Bible readings, reflections – from a book written by Bishop Stephen Cottrell – and times of silence and prayer.

Revd. Canon Nick Rowan would like to have readers from our church for a bible reading and one of the reflections. If you are prepared to do a reading, please contact Anne Sains on 07739184627.

Christian Aid Week and the Circle the City Walk Sunday 19th May

Leading up to and during Christian Aid Week (12th – 18th May) there will be Christian Aid envelopes available to make a donation and a sponsorship form for the Circle the City Walk. Please support the Walk.

If you want to join the Walk, sponsorship isn't necessary, but you need to register at www.ctc2019.eventbrite.co.uk. There are also more details about the event.

Layer Marney Tower

We are still hoping to visit Layer Marney Tower as part of our walk on Thursday 15th August despite only 5 or 6 of people showing interest so far. A visit would need to be booked in advance, so if you are interested, we need to know by SUNDAY 26th MAY

There'll be a pub lunch and the walk isn't compulsory! But we've decided not to try to squeeze in a visit to the Tiptree Museum on the same day.

Layer Marney is a Tudor palace, composed of buildings, gardens and parkland, dating from 1520.
